

1. What language did Paul use to speak to the angry crowd in Jerusalem so they would listen? A) Greek B) Latin C) Hebrew (their own language) D) Egyptian

Correct: C

2. How did Paul stop the soldiers from flogging him? A) He hid under a cloak B) He offered money C) He claimed his rights as a Roman citizen D) He ran away

Correct: C

3. What key statement did Paul make before the Sanhedrin that split the council? A) "I am from Rome" B) "I am innocent of all charges" C) "I am on trial for the hope of the resurrection of the dead" D) "I will never speak again"

Correct: C

4. Who discovered the plot of more than forty men who planned to kill Paul? A) Peter B) Paul's nephew C) Felix D) Barnabas

Correct: B

5. To ensure a fair hearing and reach his mission goal, to whom did Paul appeal? A) The high priest B) King Agrippa C) Caesar D) The city clerk

Correct: C

Textbook-Based (5 questions)

6. What best summarizes Paul's approach to his trials in Acts 22–26? A) Stay silent and hope to be released B) Turn every hearing into a chance to share his testimony and the gospel C) Escape at the first opportunity D) Pay a bribe to end the case

Correct: B

7. What wise strategy did Paul use before the Sanhedrin, according to the chapter? A) Change the subject to money B) Attack the leaders personally C) Focus the issue on the resurrection, which divided Pharisees and Sadducees D) Refuse to speak

Correct: C

8. During Paul's long talks with Governor Felix and Drusilla, what themes did he keep sharing? A) Travel tips and Roman politics B) Temple building plans C) Food laws and circumcision D) Righteousness, self-control, and the coming judgment

Correct: D

9. Why did Paul appeal to Caesar, as explained in the chapter? A) To delay the case forever B) To get out of prison quickly C) To align the legal process with God's call for him to testify in Rome and avoid an ambush D) To become a Roman official

Correct: C

10. Which leadership law from the chapter describes how Paul's honesty under pressure built trust with soldiers, governors, and kings? A) The Law of Process

B) The Law of Timing C) The Law of Solid Ground D) The Law of Magnetism
Correct: C