

Week 2 Quiz:

1) The first requirement of spiritual leadership emphasizes:

- A) Character before competency
- B) Charisma before content
- C) Events before relationships
- D) Innovation before integrity

Answer: A

2) According to Maxwell's Five Levels, early influence in youth ministry is primarily built on:

- A) Position
- B) Permission through trust
- C) Production only
- D) Pinnacle reputation

Answer: B

3) The most essential ministry strategy Jesus gives in John 15 is to:

- A) Build the biggest program
- B) Master social media
- C) Abide in Him
- D) Focus on attendance first

Answer: C

4) The "two-adult rule" primarily serves to:

- A) Save time
- B) Reduce paperwork
- C) Protect students, leaders, and the church
- D) Increase event momentum

Answer: D

5) Tony Evans emphasizes that preaching authority comes from:

- A) Personality and performance
- B) Cultural relevance alone
- C) God's Word empowered by the Spirit
- D) Technology and media

Answer: C

6) Which practice best sustains long-term ministry health?

- A) Skipping rest during busy seasons
- B) Establishing a rule of life with Scripture, prayer, Sabbath, and community
- C) Avoiding feedback to stay confident
- D) Adding more events when tired

Answer: B

7) A key implication of Maxwell's Law of the Lid is that leaders should:

- A) Delegate everything immediately
- B) Focus only on numbers
- C) Intentionally grow character and capacity to raise their impact
- D) Avoid change to keep stability

Answer: C

8) The most trustworthy way to confirm moral integrity is:

- A) Self-evaluation alone
- B) Public compliments
- C) Private aspirations
- D) Transparent accountability and consistent habits over time

Answer: D

9) A text-driven youth sermon means:

- A) Starting with stories and adding a verse at the end
- B) Choosing the most exciting topic weekly
- C) Letting the passage's main point drive the message's main point
- D) Avoiding application to stay "deep"

Answer: C

10) In partnering with parents, a wise first step is to:

- A) Replace them as primary disciple-makers
- B) Compete for authority
- C) Communicate clearly, invite feedback, and resource home discipleship
- D) Avoid contact to stay independent

Answer: C

11) Emotional resilience in ministry is best strengthened by:

- A) Ignoring feelings to appear strong
- B) Shaming yourself into working harder
- C) Naming stress, seeking support, resting, and practicing healthy rhythms
- D) Taking fewer vacations but longer hours

Answer: C

12) A safety plan should include at minimum:

- A) Event themes and games
- B) Stage lighting cues
- C) Two-adult rule, communication boundaries, transportation and reporting procedures
- D) Graphic design templates

Answer: D

13) A practical sign you value integrity with money is:

- A) Relying on memory for expenses
- B) Keeping receipts and following church-approved processes
- C) Using cash for everything without records
- D) Avoiding a budget

Answer: B

14) The Law of Priorities reminds leaders to:

- A) Say yes to all opportunities
- B) Focus on activity, not accomplishment
- C) Put first things first—prayer, people, preparation
- D) Let urgency determine schedule

Answer: C

15) Relational credibility with students grows primarily through:

- A) Clever branding and giveaways
- B) Sporadic, intense events
- C) Consistent presence, empathy, and keeping your word
- D) Frequent rule changes

Answer: C

16) When preparing to preach, a simple and faithful pattern is:

- A) Entertain, impress, dismiss
- B) Brainstorm, poll, improvise
- C) Quote many sources, avoid the text
- D) Pray the text, explain the text, illustrate, apply

Answer: D

17) Healthy boundaries in student conversations are best summarized as:

- A) Private and un interruptible
- B) Casual and undocumented
- C) Observable and interruptible with clear guidelines
- D) Digital only to stay modern

Answer: C

18) A core aspect of building a volunteer team is to:

- A) Recruit anyone quickly to fill gaps
- B) Do everything yourself to ensure quality
- C) Share vision, define roles, and provide a simple onboarding process
- D) Avoid training to keep it organic

Answer: B

19) A youth minister aligned with the church will:

- A) Run an independent calendar and mission
- B) Ignore senior leadership to move faster
- C) Coordinate vision, teaching, and communication with church leaders
- D) Compete for resources publicly

Answer: C

20) One wise response when you notice a personal weakness affecting ministry is to:

- A) Hide it to protect your image
- B) Blame circumstances
- C) Invite accountability, seek training, and make a growth plan
- D) Quit immediately

Answer: D