

Week 11 quiz Don't be a Jonah

1) According to Proverbs 3:35 (as cited), what do the wise inherit?

- a) Glory
- b) Wealth
- c) Long life
- d) Influence

Answer: a

2) The chapter contrasts legacies: Jonah's ends with a question mark, while Jesus' legacy:

- a) Ends in tragedy
- b) Is limited to the apostles
- c) Continues, commissioning disciples to change the world
- d) Stops at the Ascension

Answer: c

3) Which statement best captures the author's desired legacy?

- a) To be remembered for humanitarian awards
- b) To be known as a fearless traveler
- c) To be celebrated for political reform
- d) That teachings and life continue to point many to Christ after death

Answer: d

4) Which shocking OT event illustrates a legacy that gives life after death (2 Kings 13:21)?

- a) A corpse revived when it touched Elisha's bones
- b) Manna fell from heaven again
- c) The Red Sea re-opened
- d) Jericho's walls fell twice

Answer: a

5) How many miracles are attributed to Elijah and Elisha respectively in the chapter's count?

- a) Elijah 10; Elisha 20
- b) Elijah 14; Elisha 28 (double portion fulfilled at Elisha's tomb)
- c) Elijah 12; Elisha 24
- d) Elijah 7; Elisha 14

Answer: b

- 6) The chapter's call about how to "punctuate" your life's end is to:
- a) Leave a mystery that provokes curiosity
 - b) Leave a will with strict conditions
 - c) Leave an exclamation point—living so your testimony inspires faith
 - d) Leave a quiet life no one talks about

Answer: c

- 7) What daily practice does the epilogue recommend as "only 1% of your day"?
- a) Reading the Bible 15 minutes daily
 - b) Fasting weekly
 - c) Memorizing an entire chapter daily
 - d) Attending a service twice a day

Answer: a

- 8) Reading "a chapter a day" would complete the Bible in about:
- a) One year
 - b) Six months
 - c) Three and a half years
 - d) Ten years

Answer: c

- 9) The epilogue's ambassador analogy emphasizes we must:
- a) Study international politics
 - b) Know the kingdom's law—God's Word—to guide others in a foreign land
 - c) Specialize in ancient languages
 - d) Master diplomatic etiquette first

Answer: d

- 10) Which contrast is NOT one of the listed Jonah–Jesus parallels?
- a) Jonah's disobedient storm vs. Jesus calming the storm
 - b) Jonah angry at grace vs. Jesus embodying grace
 - c) Jonah causing death vs. Jesus avoiding the cross
 - d) Jonah in fish for sin vs. Jesus in the earth for our sin

Answer: b

- 11) Titus 2:11–12 teaches that the grace of God:
- a) Is only future

- b) Excuses ungodliness
- c) Brings salvation and trains us to renounce ungodliness and live godly now
- d) Is only for leaders

Answer: c

12) Older men are to be (Titus 2:2):

- a) Sober-minded, dignified, self-controlled, sound in faith, love, and steadfastness
- b) Retired from service
- c) Silent in assemblies
- d) Focused on wealth management

Answer: a

13) Titus is told to teach with what posture (Titus 2:15)?

- a) Entertainment and novelty
- b) All authority—speak, exhort, and rebuke; let no one disregard you
- c) Minimal correction to keep peace
- d) Anonymous instruction only

Answer: b

14) Christ “gave Himself” to do what (Titus 2:14)?

- a) Free us from earthly rulers
- b) Establish ritual purity alone
- c) Redeem us from all lawlessness and purify a people zealous for good works
- d) Endure merely as an example

Answer: c

15) Titus 3:1–2 commands believers to:

- a) Resist all rulers
- b) Speak boldly against everyone
- c) Avoid charity
- d) Be submissive to rulers, ready for every good work, speak evil of no one, be gentle

Answer: d

16) According to Titus 3:3–7, we are saved:

- a) By our righteous works
- b) By superior knowledge
- c) By God’s mercy—through washing of regeneration and renewal by the Holy Spirit

d) By national identity

Answer: a

17) Titus 3:9 warns to avoid:

- a) Mission work
- b) Foolish controversies, genealogies, dissensions, and quarrels about the law
- c) Sound teaching
- d) Corporate prayer

Answer: b

18) What is the directive regarding a divisive person (Titus 3:10–11)?

- a) Promote him to leadership
- b) Ignore his behavior indefinitely
- c) Warn him once and then twice; after that, have nothing more to do with him
- d) Publicly shame without process

Answer: c

19) Titus 3:14 urges believers to:

- a) Withdraw from society
- b) Devote themselves to good works to meet urgent needs, not be unfruitful
- c) Focus on private spirituality only
- d) Seek signs and wonders exclusively

Answer: d

20) The “blessed hope” in Titus 2:13 is:

- a) A stable economy
- b) A new temple
- c) The appearing of the glory of our great God and Savior Jesus Christ
- d) A peaceful political climate

Answer: a