

Week 3 quiz

1. According to Chapter 2, what is the preparation process described as?

- A) A series of religious hoops to jump through
- B) A divine safeguard
- C) An unnecessary delay
- D) A form of punishment

Answer: B) A divine safeguard

2. The foundation-building process is designed to ensure you:

- A) Earn a higher salary
- B) Won't crack under pressure when promoted
- C) Become popular in the church
- D) Learn public speaking skills

Answer: B) Won't crack under pressure when promoted

3. According to 1 Timothy 3:8, deacons must be:

- A) Wealthy and influential
- B) Well respected and have integrity
- C) Highly educated
- D) Excellent public speakers

Answer: B) Well respected and have integrity

4. The chapter describes "being respected" as primarily about:

- A) Being popular and well-liked
- B) Earning trust through consistency
- C) Having an important job title
- D) Being older than others

Answer: B) Earning trust through consistency

5. Integrity is defined in the chapter as:

- A) Having advanced theological knowledge
- B) Being the same person in dark and light
- C) Never making mistakes
- D) Always being right in arguments

Answer: B) Being the same person in dark and light

6. The "not a heavy drinker" requirement is about:

- A) Complete alcohol abstinence
- B) Clarity and self-control
- C) Following man-made rules
- D) Appearing religious

Answer: B) Clarity and self-control

7. Financial honesty for deacons involves:

- A) Investing church funds for profit
- B) Handling resources with terrifying honesty
- C) Keeping personal and church funds mixed
- D) Avoiding financial matters altogether

Answer: B) Handling resources with terrifying honesty

8. Being "committed to the faith" means:

- A) Knowing all Bible verses by heart
- B) Standing on God's Word despite cultural trends
- C) Attending every church service
- D) Debating theology with everyone

Answer: B) Standing on God's Word despite cultural trends

9. A clear conscience requires:

- A) Never having sinned
- B) Keeping short accounts with God and people
- C) Hiding past mistakes
- D) Being perfect from now on

Answer: B) Keeping short accounts with God and people

10. The testing process involves:

- A) Passing theological exams
- B) Proving faithfulness in small things first
- C) Impressing the pastor with gifts
- D) Waiting for years without serving

Answer: B) Proving faithfulness in small things first

11. Faithfulness to one's wife includes:

- A) Only physical faithfulness
- B) Both emotional and physical faithfulness
- C) Keeping up appearances
- D) Letting her handle all home matters

Answer: B) Both emotional and physical faithfulness

12. Managing household well means:

- A) Having perfect children
- B) Making lots of money for the family
- C) Creating a home of peace and purpose
- D) Controlling every family decision

Answer: C) Creating a home of peace and purpose

13. A deacon's wife must be:

- A) Quiet and unseen
- B) Respected in her own right
- C) Always serving in visible ministries
- D) Theologically trained

Answer: B) Respected in her own right

14. The wife's requirement to avoid slander means she:

- A) Never speaks about others
- B) Builds up rather than tears down
- C) Only speaks when spoken to
- D) Avoids all social gatherings

Answer: B) Builds up rather than tears down

15. Self-control for the wife involves:

- A) Never showing emotion
- B) Being spiritually and emotionally disciplined
- C) Always agreeing with her husband
- D) Controlling the family finances

Answer: B) Being spiritually and emotionally disciplined

16. The chapter emphasizes that cultivation of inner life includes:

- A) Serving only when visible
- B) Private prayer determining public authority
- C) Reading many Christian books
- D) Attending multiple churches

Answer: B) Private prayer determining public authority

17. "Serving when no one is watching" refers to:

- A) Only serving on Sundays
- B) Tuesday afternoon service without applause
- C) Keeping service records
- D) Serving only family members

Answer: B) Tuesday afternoon service without applause

18. Becoming a student of the Word means:

- A) Reading quickly through the Bible
- B) Letting Scripture change and shape you
- C) Memorizing verses for debate
- D) Reading only New Testament

Answer: B) Letting Scripture change and shape you

19. Guarding your heart primarily involves protecting from:

- A) All relationships
- B) Bitterness, offense, pride and compromise
- C) Financial decisions
- D) Church responsibilities

Answer: B) Bitterness, offense, pride and compromise

20. The chapter's final assignment includes:

- A) Telling everyone about your service
- B) Finding a secret place to serve and telling no one
- C) Waiting for official recognition before serving
- D) Serving only in visible positions

Answer: B) Finding a secret place to serve and telling no one